Statement of intent

This document guides staff, volunteers and visitors on the policy and procedures surrounding confidentiality.

Staff members take a supportive and accepting attitude towards pupils as part of their general responsibility for pastoral care. It is our hope that both pupils and parents feel free to discuss worries about Long Furlong Primary School, and concerns that may affect the educational progress of a pupil, with members of the school team.

In order to ensure the utmost level of safety for pupils, staff members at the school have a duty to act in accordance with this policy and not share information with external agencies, other schools or individuals.

The Confidentiality Policy has the following benefits, it:

- Ensures that important information regarding the school is not shared.
- Guarantees that financial information stays confidential and secure.
- Helps to build trust amongst staff, volunteers and external agencies.
- Supports the school's safeguarding measures.

1. Legal framework

- 1.1. This policy has due regard to all relevant legislation and statutory guidance including, but not limited to, the following:
 - Crime and Disorder Act 1998
 - Equality Act 2010
 - The General Data Protection Regulation
 - Data Protection Act 2018
 - Education Act 2002
 - Human Rights Act 1998
 - The Education (Pupil Information) (England) (Amendment) Regulations 2019 This policy is compliant under the following case law:
 - The Common Law Duty of Confidentiality
- 1.2. This policy also has due regard to guidance documents including, but not limited to, the following:
 - DfE (2018) 'Information sharing'
 - DfE (2018) 'Working Together to Safeguard Children'
- 1.3. This policy operates in conjunction with the following school policies:
 - Data Protection Policy
 - Child Protection and Safeguarding Policy
 - Anti-bullying Policy
 - Freedom of Information Policy
 - Whistleblowing Policy
 - Online safety/Social Media Policy

2. Definitions

- 2.1. For the purpose of this policy, 'confidentiality' is an understanding that any information shared with someone in trust will only be passed on to a third party with the prior and explicit agreement of the person disclosing it.
- 2.2. Within this policy, a 'disclosure' is the sharing of any private information; this term does not solely relate to child protection issues.
- 2.3. The term 'limited confidentiality' refers to the disclosure of information with professional colleagues; however, the confider would not be identified except in pre-determined circumstances.

3. Roles and responsibilities

- 3.1. All staff members, volunteers and individuals working in co-operation with the school will uphold their responsibility and duty of confidentiality, ensuring that information and personal details are not shared or discussed with others, except for the appropriate necessary bodies.
- 3.2. Visitors, volunteers and other professionals, such as healthcare professionals, are expected to work within the same boundaries of confidentiality as all staff members.
- 3.3. Staff members and volunteers alike, have the responsibility of keeping information regarding the school, including its pupils and parents, etc., confidential. This information will under no circumstances be shared, unless it is in the best interest of the school or its pupils.
- 3.4. Members of staff, volunteers, visitors, external parties and other agencies will always seek advice from a practitioner at the school if there is any doubt over sharing the information concerned, without disclosing any identifiable information where possible.

4. Confidentiality and child protection

- 4.1. The school aims to strike a balance between confidentiality and trust, ensuring the safety, wellbeing and protection of our pupils.
- 4.2. Staff members and volunteers alike will pass on information if they believe a child is at risk of harm, otherwise, staff are not obliged to break confidentiality.
- 4.3. In almost all cases of disclosure, limited confidentiality is able to be maintained.
- 4.4. Staff members and volunteers will use their professional judgement when considering whether to inform a child that a disclosure may be made in confidence and whether such confidence could remain having heard the information, bearing in mind that staff can never guarantee absolute confidentiality to pupils.
- 4.5. The Designated Safeguarding Lead is to be informed of all incidents regarding child protection concerns which are highlighted by a volunteer, parent or another external party to the school.
- 4.6. Staff members are contractually obliged to immediately inform the Designated Safeguarding Lead of any concerns regarding a pupil's safety or welfare.
- 4.7. Any concerns raised over a child's welfare and safety will be reported immediately to ensure that any intervention necessary to protect the child is accessed as early as possible.
- 4.8. Staff members are not obliged to inform the police on most matters relating to illegal activity, such as illegal drugs or assaults. These will be assessed on a case-by-case basis.

5. Sharing information

- 5.1. The school takes the stance that all information about individual pupils is private and should only be shared with other professionals who have a legitimate need to know.
- 5.2. Under no circumstances will personal information about pupils, staff members or the school be passed on indiscriminately.
- 5.3. If members of staff, volunteers or co-operating external parties share unsuitable or misrepresented information, the school withholds the right to take the appropriate civil, legal or disciplinary action.
- 5.4. The safety and protection of pupils, as well as the school, is the paramount consideration in all confidentiality decisions.
- 5.5. All staff and volunteers will report disclosures of a concerning personal nature to the DSL as soon as possible and in an appropriate setting.
- 5.6. All external visitors will be made aware of the Staff and Volunteer Confidentiality Policy and act in accordance with it when dealing with information, particularly sensitive information, regarding the school, its pupils and parents.
- 5.7. All data will be processed and held in line with the school's Data Protection Policy. In the event of information and data being shared with external or inappropriate parties, the individual responsible will be liable for disciplinary or legal action in accordance with the Data Protection Policy.
- 5.8. The school will be open and honest with all individuals about how and why data is shared, unless it is unsafe to do so.
- 5.9. Where necessary, advice will be sought from the Data Protection Officer/Data Protection Lead and other practitioners to ensure all data is shared correctly.
- 5.10. Where possible, information is shared with consent from the data subject, unless the school is able to proceed without consent under the GDPR and Data Protection Act 2018, e.g. if the data subject's safety is at risk.
- 5.11. Individuals' safety and wellbeing will form the base of all information sharing decisions, and information will not be shared if anyone's safety or wellbeing could be compromised.
- 5.12. Only information that is necessary for the purpose it is being shared for will be shared.
- 5.13. All staff, governors and volunteers can expect that their personal situations and health issues will remain confidential unless they consent to information being shared, or unless it impacts on their terms of contract and/or endangers pupils or colleagues.

- 5.14. We recognise that sometimes there may be family issues which might affect a pupil and which the family will only disclose to us if they can be sure the information will be treated confidentially. We will respect the wishes of the family and, where it is felt necessary to share the information given to us, this will be discussed with the parent first unless a pupil is considered to be at immediate risk and or there is an overriding safeguarding concern. If a parent/carer shares information about a child with an adult in school, it will not be discussed with the child without the express permission of the parent/carer.

6. Breaking confidentiality

- 6.1. When confidentiality must be broken because a child may be at risk of harm the school will ensure the following:
- Pupils are told when information has been passed on
 - Pupils are kept informed about what will be done with their information
 - To alleviate their fears concerning the information becoming common knowledge, pupils are told exactly who their information has been passed on to
- 6.2. If confidential information is shared with the explicit consent of the individuals involved, and they are informed of the purpose of sharing the information in question, there will be no breach of confidentiality or of the Human Rights Act 1998.
- 6.3. In the event that explicit consent for sharing confidential information is not gained, an individual will satisfy themselves that there are reasonable grounds to override the duty of confidentiality in these circumstances before sharing the data.
- 6.4. The school recognises that overriding public interest is a justifiable reason to disclose information; however, permission from the Headteacher will be sought prior to disclosing any information regarding the school.
- 6.5. Staff should act in accordance with the school's Whistleblowing Policy at all times.
- 6.6. Staff in breach of this policy may face disciplinary action, if it is deemed that confidential information was passed on to a third party without reasonable cause.

7. Accessing information

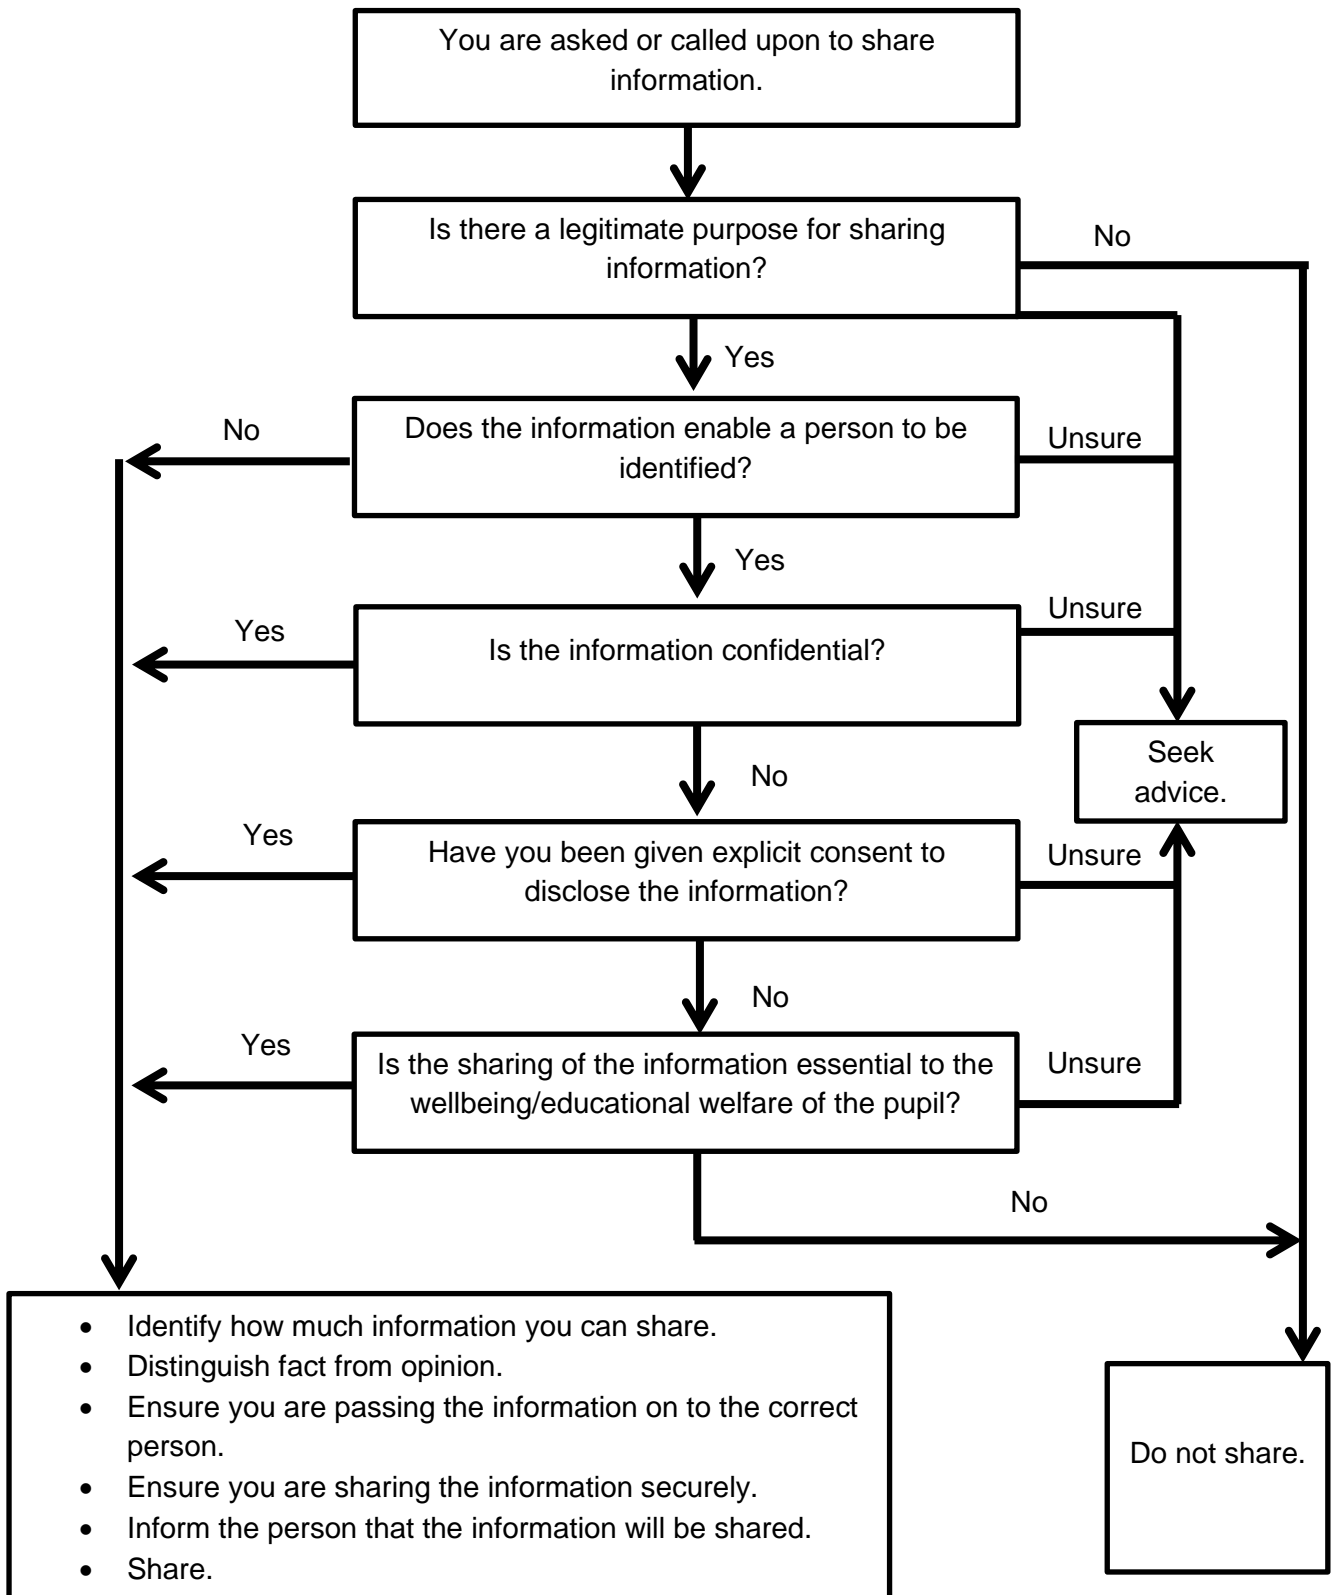

- 7.1. In accordance with article 15 of the GDPR, personal information, such as educational records, can be shared via a subject access request (SAR). Procedures for managing a SAR are contained in the school's Data Protection policy
- 7.2. In line with the Freedom of Information Act 2000, private data and public records can potentially be accessed through lodging an Fol request.

- These requests must be made in writing to the school, stating the name and address of the requester as well as a description of the information requested.
- Successful Fol requests will be responded to within 20 working days from receipt of the request, unless the request does not comply with the procedure set out in the school's Freedom of Information Policy.
- The school holds the right to charge the requester a fee.

8. Monitoring and review

- 8.1. This policy is monitored for effectiveness by the Governing Board or its delegated committee and is reviewed triennially, or where necessary in light of changes to the law or statutory guidance.
